

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
GREENVILLE DIVISION

LYNN WALTER, et al., individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

BUFFETS, INC., d/b/a HOMETOWN
BUFFETS, RYAN'S, OLD COUNTRY
BUFFET, FIRE MOUNTAIN, COUNTRY BUFFET,

Defendant.

Case No. 6:13-cv-2995-JMC

ORDER

Upon consideration of the Defendant's Motion to Stay Plaintiffs' Motion to Conditionally Certify a FLSA Collection Action and to Send Notice of the Opportunity to Join the Collective Action [Docket #66], the Court GRANTS Defendant's Motion and hereby temporarily stays briefing on Plaintiffs' Motion [Docket #60] for 90 days to allow the parties an opportunity to conduct discovery concerning the allegations in Plaintiffs' Motion [Docket #66]. Said 90 day discovery period to run from the date of this Order. Defendant's response to Plaintiffs' Motion [Docket #66] shall be filed no later than 21 days after the close of the 90-day discovery period.

June 27, 2014
Greenville, South Carolina

---

J. MICHELLE CHILDS
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE